

“Jesus is Lord of my _____?”

Message #1 – Jesus is both SAVIOR and LORD

How do you explain the following Christian behavior?

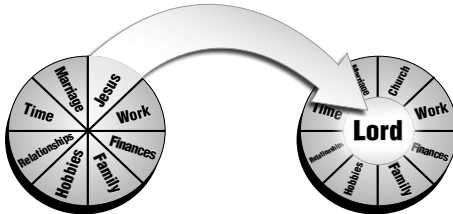

- Less than 5% of churches/Christians _____ !
- Less than 5% of churches/Christians _____ !
- Over 50% of Christian marriages end in _____ !

Answer: _____

“God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified both Lord and Christ.” – Acts 2:36

Two offices that Jesus fills:

- Jesus as “_____” = _____
 - Jesus as “_____” = _____
- “Lordship” = _____

What does it mean that Jesus is Lord? (Look at Rich Young Ruler in Matthew 19:16-30)

- #1 – _____ aspects of my life come under the Lord’s control.
- #2 – There are _____ areas of my life that operate outside of the Lord’s control.
- #3 – Areas of my life that are not under the Lord’s control are _____ areas and must be brought into alignment in Jesus.

Because Jesus is Lord of my life . . .

- “I cannot _____ my Christianity!”
- “I cannot be _____ in what I obey!”
- “I cannot separate my _____ from my _____!”
- “I must declare ‘Jesus is Lord’ in every area of my life!”

“And he died for all that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again.” – 2 Corinthians 5:15
